Thoughts of Fr Francis Jordan

God became a human being for us to redeem us, to rescue our souls. Therefore let us seek only the honour of God and the salvation of souls.

Pope Francis’ Prayer Intentions For June

Priests

That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are the most poor.

Prayer at the End of the Day

May you wrap your arms around the ones you love, look them in the eyes and tell them how much you treasure them.

May you look around, take notice and give thanks for all the blessings you’d miss if they went away tomorrow.

When you’re tempted to indulge in melancholy or discontentment, may you instead jump up, raise your hands and thank God for His daily and divine intervention in your life.

May your humble gratitude give you keen spiritual insight. Rest well tonight.

BOOK REVIEW
SCIENTIFIC & MEDICAL STUDIES on the APPARITIONS at MEDJUGORJE
by Rene Laurentin and Henri Joyeux

The alleged apparitions of Our Lady in the Yugoslav village of Medjugorje have become the focus of worldwide attention. But what of the five young visionaries themselves? Apart from the obvious questions of the authenticity of the apparitions what exactly do they experience? This study of world renowned mariologist, Fr. Laurentin and scientist, Professor Joyeux of the University of Montpellier sets out to answer this question.

If you would like the names of your relatives or friends included, please drop the envelope in to the Parish Office by Midday on Wednesdays. Thank You.

2019 Diocesan Children’s Choir Games

Come and Sing!

Sunday 22 September 2019, St Patrick’s Church, Asquith.

Open to any young singer from Year 2 to Year 12, the afternoon begins at 12.30pm when all singers gather for rehearsal with the Choir Games director. Singers will then be randomly divided into three choirs and assigned a young director to work with them. Workshops and rehearsals will follow, with a break for socialising and snacks.

At 3.00pm the Games begin! Parents, families, parishioners and guests are invited to come along and join the audience, to cheer on the choirs. The choirs compete in three categories: Action Songs, Spirituals, and Part-Singing, and then compete in a special unprepared Skills Challenge. Three official adjudicators award points to each choir in each of the categories, but audience acclaim will also be taken into consideration in determining the winning choir.

This is a fun afternoon where young people involved in parish music ministry or who may be interested in becoming involved, can meet and socialise, learn new skills and new music, perform and work together and enjoy themselves, and join their families and friends in celebrating the power and place of young people in the living Church.

Registration $5.00 per singer.

Soibada - The Hospitality Training Centre

Changes in Education policy in Timor Leste have resulted in a shift in focus from traditional western methods to vocational training in an effort to provide jobs and industry in the villages. Soibada Senior High School has re-evaluated their needs accordingly. Tourism has been identified by the Timorese Government as an area of growth. This has prompted the village hierarchy, School Principal and Chiefs to request assistance to the funding for construction of a facility where students can be taught the basics of hospitality training.

The structure of the building is completed with only finishing off work and painting required. Plans are underway to fit it out with furniture made by local villagers. Thus providing more jobs and income for the community. Tablecloths and curtains are being made by the local tailor who has been trained and equipped by Friends of Soibada. The building consists of a reception area, a classroom, a demonstration bedroom, bathroom and dining area so that students can learn the basics of running a guesthouse. There is also a restaurant attached.

Local builders have been used for the project. Their training has been paid for by previous funding from Pittwater Friends of Soibada. The bricks and most items needed for construction were also made in the village. This project provided jobs and income for many local families and an opportunity to train local youth in construction. Volunteers from the local high school’s newly formed Parents and Friends Group collaborated with students to work on the construction site.

There is great opportunity for tourism in the picturesque village of Soibada and it has the potential to provide jobs for a large amount of villagers. This training centre will also have the effect of keeping the young people in the village and solve the problem of so many moving to the city to look for work and education. The hospitality training centre will have a restaurant attached. Students have begun instruction in the administration and running of this with the assistance of Timorese trainers. (Many of these are volunteers from the capital city, Dili.) The centre will be officially opened in July this year. A plaque acknowledging all donors and contributors will be erected on completion of construction.

Construction is underway for the adjoining vegetable garden and livestock pens.

The in-country project manager is Joanico da Costa, the Principal of the Nicolau Lobato Senior High School in Soibada. He works in consultation with the village chiefs, Parish Priest and government — both local and national. He communicates with Pittwater Friends of Soibada daily over Facebook Messenger (the most reliable and popular method of communication for people in Soibada). Joanico is a visionary. He has personally hired a truck and taken his students on an excursion to Dili (6 hours drive through the jungle) to visit hotels, restaurants and tourist attractions.

Days for Girls – there is a workshop in Maria Regina Church Hall from 1pm this Sunday! Please come along.

The Ascension of the Lord

1st & 2nd June 2019

The Living Word

First Reading
Acts 1:1-11
A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
Why are you standing here looking into the sky? Jesus has been taken into heaven.

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning untill the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. ‘It is,’ he had said, ‘what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.’

Now having met together, they asked him, ‘Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?’ He replied, ‘It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.’

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, ‘Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.’

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm
Ps 46:2-3. 6-7. 8-9. R. v.6

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy; a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

or

(R.) Alleluia!

All peoples, clap your hands; cry to God with shouts of joy!

For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. (R)

God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.

Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise. (R)

God is king of all the earth.

Sing praise with all your skill.

God is king over the nations;

God reigns on his holy throne. (R)

Second Reading
Eph 1:17-23
A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians
He made Jesus to sit at his right hand in heaven.

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him, as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation
Mt 28:19. 20

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel.

I am with you always, until the end of the world.

Alleluia!

Gospel
Lk 24:46-53
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
While blessing them, he was taken to heaven.

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘You see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations of Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this. ‘And now I am sending down to you what the Father has promised. Stay in the city then, until you are clothed with the power from on high.’ Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven. They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy; and they were continually in the Temple praising God.

The Gospel of the Lord

REFLECTION
by Dianne Bergant CSS

The Feast of the Ascension is really a kind of liminal moment in the Easter season. It is a time between times, a moment when we have left one place, but have not yet arrived at a second. While the narratives that describe the Ascension fit well into the unfolding story of redemption, the feast celebrates the exaltation of Jesus. The readings allow us to focus on this theological point while we commemorate a turning point in the life of the church. We do this by considering the enthronement of Christ in the heavens and the new body of Christ on earth.

Many of the Easter accounts have directed our attention to the appearances of Jesus which we intended to strengthen the Christians’ belief in his bodily resurrection.

Today we stand awestruck, watching Jesus ascend into the clouds of heaven, there to be enthroned at the right hand of God. Today is a day to be overwhelmed by the reality of the divinity of the one whom we have known in his humanity. Christ who ascended into heaven in his body carries on what he began on earth through his new body, the community of believers. He teaches through its apostles and evangelists. He ministers through its prophets and pastors. We have not been left alone; we have his power, the same power with which he performed miracles while he walked the earth. We have not been left alone: we have each other. Together we make up the new body of Christ.

Happy birthday to you, who are the body of the Church!

We’re all familiar with our own birthdays, and we celebrate them because they mark the day of the year in which we entered into this life. But did you know you have a second birthday?

Because you are part of the body of the Church, Pentecost is the Church’s birthday, and yours as well. And like any birthday, it’s a cause for celebration.

Join us as we celebrate the birthday of the Church, with coffee, tea and cake after the 9am Mass at Maria Regina Church, Avalon and after the 10am Mass at Sacred Heart Church, Mona Vale

The word Pentecost is Greek and it means “50th day.” Fifty days after Easter Sunday, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and their followers, and the beginning of their earthly ministry to make disciples of all nations.

At Pentecost, the Apostles and their followers were gathered in a room. Jews from all over the world were gathered with Peter, the leader of the Apostles and the Eleven. At this time, a great wind blew and a flame appeared as a tongue of fire, which split itself into many individual flames above the heads of all those present. The Holy Spirit came upon these people and each began to speak in tongues. Despite the fact many had no common language, they were perfectly able to understand one another.
